

---

---

INEQUALITIES AND SEGREGATION IN LARGE EUROPEAN CITIES

---

---

Thursday, February 12, 2009

9:00am - 6:15pm

Center for European Studies, Lower Level Conference Room

27 Kirkland Street, Cambridge, MA

www.ces.fas.harvard.edu

---

09:00 Introduction

Peter Hall, Krupp Foundation Professor of European Studies, Harvard University

Presentation of the general perspective of the comparative research project

Edmond Préteceille, directeur de recherche, Sciences Po, Observatoire Sociologique du Changement, CNRS

09:30 Economic structure and change

Edmond Préteceille

10:00 Social structure and inequality

Hans Thor Andersen, associate professor of social geography and urban politics, director of the Centre for Strategic Urban Research, University of Copenhagen

10:30 Coffee break

10:45 Ethnic Change and Social Integration

Chris Hamnett, Professor of Geography, King's College, London

11:15 Discussant: Michèle Lamont, Robert I. Goldman Professor of European Studies, Professor of Sociology and African and African-American Studies, Harvard University

11:30 Discussion

12:30 Lunch break

14:00 Middle classes

Chris Hamnett and Edmond Préteceille

14:30 Urban segregation

Thomas Maloutas, Professor of Urban Geography, University of Thessaly, director of the Institute for Urban and Rural Sociology, EKKE, Athens

15:00 Discussant: John R. Logan, Professor of Sociology, Director, Spatial Structures in the Social Sciences, Brown University

15:15 Discussion

16:00 Coffee break

16:15 Welfare mix and local policies

Jesus Leal Maldonado, Professor of Sociology, Universidad Complutense, Madrid

16:45 Policies addressing segregation

Hartmut Häusserman, Professor of Sociology, Humboldt University, Berlin

17:15 Discussant: Susan Fainstein, Professor of Urban Planning, Harvard Graduate School of Design, Harvard University

17:30 Discussion

18:15 Concluding remarks

---

Presented by

SciencesPo.